SBA Announces Annual Award Winners

Jaimie Logan, Governor's Account Executive with Maine Department of Economic & Community Development Named Financial Services Champion

Augusta, Maine – Today, the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) announced its annual award winners for 2015. Jaimie Logan, a Governor's Account Executive with the Maine Department of Economic and Community Development was chosen to receive the prestigious Financial Services Champion award for Maine.

"I am very excited about the selection of Ms. Logan for this award," said Marilyn Geroux, SBA District Director for Maine. "The mission of support for small business owners is one that is shared by agencies and entities at all levels, and Ms. Logan's achievement demonstrates the close cooperation between the SBA and DECD here in Maine," she added.

"Jaimie is a key member of the LePage Administration and is deeply committed to working one-on-one with businesses across our state," said DECD Commissioner George Gervais. "Jaimie's ability to help businesses of all sizes start up, expand or relocate in Maine is well-documented."

Jaimie Logan was nominated for this award by Brian Whitney, former Director of Business Development at DECD, and is currently President of Maine Technology Institute, and will be honored at an SBA reception on May 5th at the Augusta Country Club in Manchester.

The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) was created in 1953, and assists our nation's small businesses in creating jobs, preserving free competitive enterprise, and strengthening the overall economy of our nation.
